

By-Law No. 01 of the T'Sou-ke Indian Band

A by-law for the Prevention of Noise

WHEREAS the Council of the T'Sou-ke Band desires to make a by-law governing the prevention of noise, with respect to any matter arising out of or ancillary to the exercise of powers under section 81, and for the imposition of a penalty for a violation thereof;

AND WHEREAS the Council of the T'Sou-ke Band is empowered to make such by-law pursuant to paragraphs 81(1)(d), (q) and (r) of the Indian Act.

AND WHEREAS it is considered to be expedient and necessary for the benefit, comfort and safety of the inhabitants of the T'Sou-ke Band to provide for the prevention of noise on the reserve;

NOW THEREFORE the Council of the T'Sou-ke Band hereby makes the following by-law:

Short Title

1. T'Sou-ke Band Noise Control By-law.

Interpretation

2. In this by-law,

"band" means the T'Sou-ke Band.

"construction" includes erection, alteration, repair, dismantling, demolition, structural maintenance, painting, moving, land clearing, earth moving, grading, excavating, the laying of pipe and conduit whether above or below ground level, street and highway building, concreting, equipment installation and alteration and the structural installation of construction components and materials in any form or for any purpose, and includes any work in connection therewith;

"construction equipment" means any equipment or device designed and intended for use in construction or material handling, including but not limited to, air compressors, pile drivers, pneumatic or hydraulic tools, bulldozers, tractors, excavators, trenches, cranes, derricks, loaders, scrapers, pavers, generators, off-highway haulers or trucks, ditchers, compactors and rollers, pumps, concrete mixers, graders or other material handling equipment;

"conveyance" includes a vehicle and any other device employed to transport a person or persons or goods from place to place but does not include any such device or vehicle if operated only within the premises of a person;

"Council" means the Council, as defined in the Indian Act, of the T'Sou-ke Band;

"motor vehicle" includes an automobile, motorcycle, and any other vehicle propelled or driven otherwise than by muscular power; but does not include the cars of electric or steam railways, or other motor vehicles running only upon rails, or a motorized snow vehicle, traction engine, farm tractor, self-propelled implement of husbandry or road-building machine within the meaning of the Highway Traffic Act;

"noise" means unwanted sound that materially impairs the use and enjoyment of a person's property, or that prejudicially affects a person's health, comfort or convenience or the public health, safety or welfare of the reserve community, but does not include a sound to the extent it is unavoidably necessary for carrying on any business or other means of livelihood authorized by the Council;

"point of reception" means any point on the premises of a person where sound or vibration originating from other than those premises is received;

"officer" means any police officer, police constable or other person charged with the duty to preserve and maintain public peace, and a by-law officer or any other person appointed by the Council for the purpose of maintaining law and order on the reserve;

"person" includes a corporation;

"reserve" means the reserve of T'Sou-ke Band and includes the Band's Reserves No.1 and No.2.

Zones

3. All lands within the geographic limit of the reserve of the T'Sou-ke Band shall be considered as the area effected by this by-law.

General Prohibitions

4. No person shall emit or cause or permit the emission of sound resulting from an act listed herein, and which sound is clearly audible at a point of reception:

Exemption

6. Notwithstanding any other provision of this by-law, it shall be lawful to emit or cause or permit the emission of sound or vibration in connection with emergency measures undertaken:
- (a) for the immediate health, safety or welfare of the inhabitants; or
 - (b) for the preservation or restoration or property;

unless such sound or vibration is clearly of longer duration or nature more disturbing, than is reasonably necessary for the accomplishment of such emergency purpose.

Grant of Exemption by Council

APPLICATION TO COUNCIL

7. Notwithstanding anything contained in this by-law, any person may make application to Council to be granted an exemption from any of the provisions of this by-law with respect to any source of sound or vibration for which he might be prosecuted and Council may, by resolution, refuse to grant any exemption or may grant the exemption applied for or any exemption of lesser effect and any exemption granted shall specify the time period, not in excess of six months, during which it is effective and may contain such terms and conditions as Council sees fit.

Decision

8. In deciding whether to grant the exemption, Council shall give the applicant and any person opposed to the application an opportunity to be heard and may consider such other matters as it sees fit.

Reapplication

9. Where an application made under section 1 is refused, the Council is not required to consider any further application by that person for a period of one (1) year from the date of the refusal, unless the applicant can show that there has been a material change of circumstances.

Breach

10. Breach by the application of any of the terms or conditions of any exemption granted by Council shall render the exemption null and void.

Offence

- 11.(1) Everyone who creates and causes a noise contrary to the provisions of this by-law is guilty of an offence.
 - (2) An Officer may order any person who is causing or who threatens to cause a noise on the reserve to refrain from causing the noise or to abate the noise within such period as is reasonable in the circumstances.
 - (3) In determining whether a period fixed by an officer under subsection (2) was reasonable in the circumstances, a court shall take into account
 - (a) the nature and extent of the noise;
 - (b) the methods available to abate the noise;
 - (c) the effect of the order on any business or means of livelihood of the period who is the subject of an order.

Enforcement

- 12.(1) Where a person who has been ordered to refrain from causing a noise or to abate a noise within a specified period, fails or refuses to comply with the order, an officer may take such reasonable measures as are necessary to abate the noise.

- (2) A person who fails or refuses to comply with an order made under this by-law or who resists or interferes with an officer acting under this by-law, commits an offence.

Penalty

13. A person who commits an offence under this by-law is liable on summary conviction to a fine not exceeding $1000.00 or to imprisonment for a term not exceeding thirty days, or to both.
